The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the report of the Commission for the Selection of a Site for the Eastern Penitentiary which the Clerk will read.

The Clerk read the report as follows:

February 1, 1927.

To The Honorable, the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

The Eastern State Penitentiary Commission respectfully begs leave to submit the following report:

The Commission was created by the Act of May 14, 1925, P. L. 726, which provided that it should be composed of the Secretary of Welfare, the President of the Board of Trustees of the Eastern Penitentiary, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, two members of the Senate to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and three members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker.

Promptly upon the the adjournment of the 1925 Session of the Legislature the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appointed as members of the Commission, Honorable Augustus F. Daix, Jr., and Honorable Harry D. Kutz, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives appointed as members Honorable Alfred F. Alleman, Honorable Edwin C. Emhardt and Honorable Walter H. Craig.

The Commission met for the purpose of organization on June 25, 1925, at which time the President Pro Tempore of the Senate was elected Chairman and the Secretary of Welfare, Dr. Ellen C. Potter, was elected Secretary. These officers continued to serve until January 18, 1927, when Senator Daix was elected Secretary of the Commission to succeed Dr. Potter whose membership on the Commission expired on that date.

Subsequent meetings were held by the Commission on the following dates:

June 25, 1925

November 14, 1925
May 21, 1926
June 4, 1926
June 22, 1926
July 8, 1926 (visited Gratersford property)
July 11, 1926 (Dr. Potter visited Isabella tract)
Augst 23, 1926
September 11, 1926
October 21, 1926

at which meetings persons who had properties to submit were interviewed.

All meetings of the Commission were well attended and the widest possible publicity was given to the transactions, the press being welcome and the newspapers being notified.

Representatives of the Pennsylvania Railroad and the Reading Railroad were most courteous in the assistance offered the Commission in visiting various tracts of land which seemed possibly adapted to our use.

The Commission let it be known that it was prepared to consider offers of from 1,200 to 1,800 acres, and that the tracts should be within fifty miles of Philadelphia since the bulk of the Penitentiary population came from that city and costs of transportation were a consideration. The land need not be in a high state of cultivation but must be capable of development into good farm land have on it stone quarries, clay banks, if possible, wood lots or forest land and an abundance of water supply should be available.

It was also determined by the Commission that in making the selection they would do as little violence as might be necessary to the public opinion of the citizens in the neighborhood of the proposed site.

It was the sense of the Commission that the site should not be in close proximity to densely populated communities.

It was considered indispensable that railroad facilities should be taken into the proposed Penitentiary site without too great cost. It was also felt that the Penitentiary site should not be traversed by main State highways.

Properties were visited by the Commission in Chester and Montgomery Counties, all other properties being ruled out either by violent public protest or by location to inter-State line, not accessible to railroad, too small tract, too close proximity to densely populated communities, etc., etc. The number of persons offering tracts of land in the several counties is indicated below:-

Berks County	4
Blair County	1
Bucks County	31
Chester County	49
Columbia County	4
Cumberland County	3
Delaware County	4
Lancaster County	1
Lehigh County	2
Montgomery County	12
Northampton County	3
Schuylkill County	1
Susqueshanna County	1
Miscellaneous	3
Total	122

The number of persons or firms interviewed at Commission meetings is as follows:-

Berks County	3
Blair County	0
Bucks County	15
Chester County	35	(including some who attended 2 or 3 times)
Columbia County	4
Cumberland County	1
Deleware County	1
Lancaster County	1
Lehigh County	1
Montgomery County	4
Northampton County	2
Northumberland County	1
Schuylkill County	1
Susquehanna County	0
Miscellaneous	2
Total	71

After careful deliberation, the Commission decided that the most desirable tract was in Montgomery County, the Gratersford property, and the State Department of Forests and Waters was invited to make a geological survey on behalf of the Commission. Such a survey was made and furnished to the Commission.

The Reading Railroad sent its representatives to look over the site and ultimately its engineers, and a letter from Charles H. Ewing, Vice President, addressed to the Chairman reads as follows:

My dear Senators:

Referring to our conversations with reference to track connection to the proposed location of the Eastern Penitentiary, in the vicinity of Gratersford Station, Perkiomen Railroad.

I am sending you herewith Plan P-4113, dated September 27th, 1926, showing the track as agreed upon. This Company will build that portion of the track from the connection to our main track to the east end of the bridge, with the understanding that any right of way or property needed for this construction will be furnished this Company without cost.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) CHARLES H. EWING,

Vice President.

A special committee of the Commission was appointed by the President consisting of Mr. Fleisher, Mr. Emhardt and Mr. Daix to fix the definite line of properties which was deemed best to acquire.

In view of the fact that much political gossip was current that certain members of the Commission were likely to reap financial rewards from the transaction, it was the sense of the Commission that the whole matter of purchase should be placed in the hands of the Attorney General and the following resolution was passed on the 21st day of October, 1926, signed by Mr. Alfred W. Fleisher, Hon. Samuel W. Salus, Hon. Thomas Bluett, Hon. Alfred F. Allman, Hon. Augustus F. Daix, Jr., Hon. Walter H. Craig and Hon. Edwin C. Emhardt on that date and by Dr. Ellen C. Potter, who was absent from the meeting, on October 27th, 1926.

Resolved, that this Commission hereby selects as the site for a new Eastern State Penitentiary, a tract of land containing not less than fifteen hundred acres, situate in Skippack Township, Montgomery County, the tract to be within the area bounded by the Perkiomen Creek, State Highway Number 197 and State Highway Number 270; and be it

Further Resolved, that the Attorney General of this Commonwealth be requested to negotiate on behalf of this Commission with the owners of property within said area for the purchase thereof, to report to this Commission at its next meeting upon what terms the several properties therein contained can be purchased and to recommend which of the properties within said area should be purchased and which taken by condemnation proceedings after this Commission shall have determined upon the exact lines of the tract to be acquired; and be it

Further Resolved, that the committee of this Commission heretofore appointed to recommend the definite lines of the tract to be acquired, be and hereby are authorized to employ an engineer to assist them in reaching a conclusion for recommendation to this Commission, such engineer to consult with the Attorney General with respect to the comparative expense of establishing the lines along the several possible locations; and be it

Further Resolved, that said committee be requested to make its report to this Commission at its next meeting, definitely recommending the lines which should bound the tract to be acquired.

The Secretary of the Commission was instructed to transmit this resolution to the Attorney General for his action and this being done under date of October 27th, 1926.

Immediately upon receiving a copy of the Commission's resolution the Attorney General proceeded to negotiate with the owners of property within the lines mentioned in the resolution and at a subsequent meeting of the Commission made his report and recommendations to the Commission. Thereupon, the Commission by resolution established definite lines for the site of the new Penitentiary and requested the Attorney General to conclude his negotiations for the purchase of such properties within the tract as could be acquired at a reasonable price and to institute condemnation proceedings for the remaining properties.

The Attorney General acting for the Commission has entered into contracts with the great majority of the property owners within the tract. Final settlements for these properties will be made on or before May 1, 1927.

Condemnation proceedings will be begun in the immediate future for the acquisition of the remaining properties.

The tract selected by the Commission will comprise approximately 1,500 acres and is admirably situated for penitentiary purposes. It contains numerous quarries, many acres of first class woodland and a number of excellent farm properties.

The total cost of the tract including the expenses of members of the Commission, title insurance on the land which will be acquired by purchase and all other necessary incidental expenses will not exceed the amount of the appropriation made by the 1925 Legislature, namely, three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000).

As the work of the Commission has not been entirely completed it is recommended that the Act of May 14, 1925, be amended so as to continue the Commission in existence until its work shall have been finally concluded.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) SAMUEL W. SALUS,

Chairman.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 704, as follows:

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the seventeenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred and ninety-five) entitled "An act to provide for the appointment of assistant district attorneys in the several counties having over ninety thousand and less than seven hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants and fixing their salaries"

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of an act approved the seventeenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred and ninety-five) entitled "An act to provide for the appointment of assistant district attorneys in the several counties having over ninety thousand and less than seven hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants and fixing their salaries" is hereby amended to read as follows.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in all counties of this Commonwealth having a population of more than ninety thousand and less than one hundred fifty thousand inhabitants the district attorneys shall have authority to appoint [with the consent of the president judge of the court of quarter sessions of the county] two assistant district attorneys [who] The first assistant district attorney shall receive a salary of two thousand five hundred dollars per annum and the second assistant district attorney shall receive a salary of two thousand dollars per annum In all counties having a population of one hundred and fifty thousand and more but less than two hundred thousand inhabitants the district attorney shall have authority to appoint a first assistant district attorney at a salary of three thousand dollars per annum and a second district attorney at a salary of two thousand dollars per annum In counties having a population of two hundred thousand and more but less than seven hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants the district attorney shall have authority to appoint a first assistant district attorney at an annual salary of three thousand six hundred dollars a second assistant district attorney at an annual salary of three thousand dollars a third assistant district attorney at an annual salary of twenty-five hundred dollars and with the approval of the president judge of the court of quarter sessions may appoint a fourth assistant district attorney at an annual salary not to exceed two thousand dollars

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FRED W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, and members of this house, I desire to call the attention of the members to this bill because I fear we are leading into an extravagance. We have passed many bills here already, I believe, for increases of salaries. I think now it is about time to call a halt, if we can, although I doubt it. This bill affects the county which I represent and as our county is now in rather straightened circumstances I feel that I should attempt to do something in my way to enlist some few members, if not all, against this bill, so I think that I have indicated enough to attract the attention of the members to a salary raising bill.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the house, this bill merely provides that in counties of the fifth class, where now two assistant district attorneys are provided for that the first one shall receive a salary of $2500.00 instead of $2000.00. We find it extremely difficult to get any one to serve as assistant district attorney for the sum of $2000.00. In addition to that this bill provides that the district attorney shall have the opportunity, it shall be in his discretion to decide whether or not there shall be one or two assistant district attorneys. Under the law as it stands to-day every county down to the fifth class county has that authority. There is no reason why the fifth class counties should be discriminated against. This is a salary raiser to the extent of $500.00. I ask you to pass the bill.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

An Act to repeal an act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five (Pamphlet Laws one hundred forty-two) entitled "An act to repeal the first section of an act entitled 'An act for regulating and maintaining of fences' passed Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred"

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS, Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Will the gentleman explain what the act of 1885 P. L. 142 is? What is that act?

Mr. SOWERS. House bill No. 576 undertakes to repeal the first section of the act of 1700, Statutes at Large volume 2 page 70, regulating fences. By the provision of that section the act was not to go into effect in any county until the provisions were accepted by the electors at a general election. The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in the case of Frost v. Cherry, 122 Pa. 417, held the law to be unconstitutional. This is one of the general repealers that has been offered this session for the purpose of wiping off of the books a lot of dead and obsolete laws.

EXPOSITION ON REPEALERS.

1885, June 23, P. L. 142 (FENCES.)

This Act undertakes to repeal the first section of the Act of 1700, Statutes at Large, Volume II, Page 70, regulating fences. By the provisions of Section 2, the act was not to go into effect in any county until its provisions were accepted by the electors at general election. This act was held unconstitutional in "Frost v. Cherry," 122 Pa. 417.

PRIVILEGE OF HOUSE EXTENDED TO HON. GEORGE E. ALTER.

Mr. GOEHRING. Mr. Speaker, I notice within the walls of this House a man who was a member of the House for many years; who was also speaker of this House. Later he was appointed Attorney General of the State. I would ask the unanimous consent of the House to hear him from the rostrum, the Honorable George E. Alter of Pittsburgh.

The SPEAKER. Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and unanimous consent is granted.

Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Goehring, please escort General Alter to the rostrum.

The SPEAKER. The Chair takes great pleasure in presenting at this time, though he need no introduction to any of you, one of the State's outstanding citizens, the Honorable George E. Alter.

REMARKS BY MR. ALTER.

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, fourteen years ago I could be heard distinctly at the rear of the hall. I trust I may still be heard with equal facility. I have the most delightful recollection of three sessions of service in this House, the last one, that of 1913, in this Chair. The session of 1913 was a session somewhat remarkeable. I have said heretofore that while some might say that we did not have a real speaker, nobody could ever attempt to suggest that we did not at that time have a real House. I notice, in perusing carefully, as every citizen who has the opportunity should do, the pages of the Legislative Record that a few days ago you eliminated I think all that was left of the particular rules which were adopted on that occasion. At the time of their adopting, their adoption was inevitable. We were then in the midst of a period of great uplift and reform; there was a real sentiment of reform in that House, evidenced, of course, immediately upon its organization and its choice of officers, and that sentiment extended to quite an extensive modification of the rules of the House. The only one of the changes which affected the Speaker, the only power not exercised by the Speaker during that Session which has ordinarily been exercised by the Speaker, was that of the appointment of the standing committees. That to me was a piece of good fortune. Every man who expected a particularly desirable committee appointment in the event of my election, of he still lives, he still believes he would have gotten it. Likewise, in an episode which overtook me a little over four years ago, nearly five years, every one who was then contemplating the occupancy of a desirable office, under the Commonwealth still believes that office would have been his, and I have never thought it necessary to disabuse anybody's mind on that subject.

Referring back to the rules of 1913, which were intended to make it especially easy, or at least do away with the majority clause in getting bills on the calendar, it resulted of course in many bills being debated on the floor of the House and acted upon on final passage which otherwise would have remained in committee, but I don't believe that it made any material difference in the number of bills which were passed finally, but it added greatly to the opportunities for debate, and that was a House which did indulge to the full that opportunity. The great Thomas B. Reed once said in the midst of a debate in the House of Representatives at Washington: "Doing one's duty is well, but freeing the mind is beautiful," and during that session there was much freeing of the mind.

I am still glad to see such a number of my old friends of those three sessions still members of the House. There sits George Williams of Tioga; there is Aaron Hess of Lancaster, and I understand John Flynn is generally in his place,—yes there he is now. There are quite a number from my own county. I cannot tell you what a pleasure it is to have this opportunity to be here for a few minutes. I naturally cannot speak up here without picking up this gavel. I broke about six of these during the session of 1913. I am sure your session of this year will be a session of great benefit to the Commonwealth. I think you are working with the most excellent, practical, intelligent and patriotic administration in the other corner of the building. When I was Attorney General one of the most pleasant parts of my work was the contact I had with the members of the House in connection with legislation. I have a very close, warm and pleasant acquaintance with the present Attorney General, and I want to say to each one of you that you never dealt with a gentleman whom you will find more considerate, more able and intelligent in the dealings you will have with him than you will have with the present Attorney General.

Mr. Speaker, it is trespassing upon the time of the House for me to occupy so much of its time, and I simply want, in conclusion, to extend my very best wishes to the members of the House, whom you serve, and congratulate the House upon its membership, upon its speaker and upon its opportunity.

The SPEAKER. I am sure that the House has been glad to hear from its outstanding citizen and one of the greatest figures that was in the House during our present time.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. EACHES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Washington, Mr. McCallister.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. McCallister permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCALLISTER. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

Mr. EACHES. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman kindly explain this bill to the House?

Mr. McCALLISTER. Mr. Speaker, I would be very glad to. This bill would not interfere in any way with the existing act of 1913. This bill would enable a city of the third class, if it so wished, to change its name, and would not interfere in any other way. In this case it is Monongahela City, my town, and we think we have really too small a city for so much name and we ask that some of it be taken off.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, in connection with the public hearing, the Tax Commission has asked for sufficient time to cover the twenty-one bills which have been introduced. The SPEAKER. If there is no objection on the part of the House, permission will be given to the Committee to sit during the session of the House this afternoon. Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the committee is permitted to sit during the meeting of the House.

RECESS.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the Chair would like to declare a recess until this afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, P. M. The Chair hears none and a recess is therefore declared until 3 o'clock this afternoon.

AFTER RECESS.

The House reconvened at 3:00 o'clock P. M.

The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

Baldrige,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 688, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to section eighteen article three of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is necessary that I should make a few remarks before this bill is voted on. There is no class of people in the State of Pennsylvania that will be more appreciative than the sightless men and women of this State if this bill passes. There are eleven states in the Union giving pensions to the blind, and Pennsylvania in my opinion is one of the richest states and it does less for its unfortunates than any other state. We have organizations in this state that receive appropriations, donations and contributions, but they are only able to help a small percentage of the sightless, and we have come to the conclusion that the only practical solution of this problem is for the state to give direct aid. Now, I want to call your attention to this, give this a little thought, what a benefit it would be to a class of people, for instance, take a man who is married and he has a number of children, he has all his faculties, he goes to the mines or the mill in the morning and he comes home and he is without sight. The compensation which he receives is limited. What must he do? Many of the unfortunates have been forced upon the streets to solicit for a livelihood. When you go along the streets in the city of Harrisburg or Philadelphia or Pittsburgh, or other large cities in this state, you frequently come in contact with these sightless people soliciting. Have Have you any idea of how they are humiliated, embarrased and insulted by certain people who pass them. Many people say that they make a big amount of money and they own brick houses and so forth. These unfortunates have time and time again been arrested and compelled to pay fines because they were begging, yet they had no alternative. I would like to have every man in this House to vote for this bill because it is going to extend human relief to the most unfortunate class of people in the State of Pennsylvania.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Almighty God, we are living in a world lighted by Thy presence. Everything speaks of Thee. The stars are messages of light and the flowers are the gospel of colored fragrance. We are astounded as we stand amid the magnificence and grandeur of the material universe; and amid the roll of motions and the onward sweep of mighty rivers and dashing cataracts we see Thy wisdom and power. And in adoration we call on Thee, and say, "What is man, that Thou art mindful of him; and the son of man, that Thou visitest him?"

We thank Thee this morning for health and strength and the right use of our minds; and as we proceed in the business of this hour may the blessing of God rest upon every one here. And we will give Thee the glory now and forever. Amen.

NAYS—0.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 245, entitled:

An Act authorizing the counties cities boroughs towns and townships to place their respective officers and employes in the State Employes' Retirement Association prescribing the procedure to be followed and authorizing a special tax to pay the expenses incident thereto placing certain duties upon the State Treasurer and the fiscal officers of the said municipal units prohibiting the future establishment of local pension or retirement systems and providing in certain cases for the discontinuance of existing ones

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. I have been asked to give a word of explanation on this bill. The Employes' Retirement System has been in operation since January 1, 1924, and it has been so successful that there are now over six thousand of the State employes enrolled in this pension system. It is so successful that the suggestion has been made that the benefit of this sound acturial pension system of the State be extended to the other employes of the State at large.

This bill is drawn, therefore, for inviting all the municipalities of the State to transfer their funds to Harrisburg and come under the sound acturial principles which we now have here, so that their various pension funds do not run on the rocks, as they are very apt to do.

It is purely voluntary, and will not cost the State of Pennsylvania any additional money, because the expense will be rated among the various beneficiaries that come in from the various municipalities of the State.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, would that bill include the two pension systems of Allegheny County, including Allegheny County and the City of Pittsburgh, which has a separate pension system?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, the invitation would be extended to all municipalities, from townships up to first-class cities. But, as I say, it is entirely at the option of the people in the locality whether they care to come in or not.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, there is then, nothing in the Act that in any sense makes it compulsory?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, not at all.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, it is simply an invitation?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, that is all.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I will, with great pleasure.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, whether this is to establish a precedent of extending invitations by Acts of Assembly?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I thought that would be a very polite way.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, further.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, is this an extension of the proposition to bring about civil service in all these communities where there are city, county and State employes?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, there is no question of civil service in it at all.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, does this make a tie-in, that they cannot be dismissed or retired?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, there is no connection whatever, that I can imagine, with civil service—entirely independent.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, might it be an argument that an employe who had served a certain number of years should be retained in his employment for, say, four years more because he would then be eligible to retire on pension?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, that thought never occurred to me.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, there is no argument, then. This thing is not a knot leading into a tie?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, no, this comes from the Department in the Secretary of State's office—this bill. It is simply that those people are enjoying such a blessing that they want to extend it to their brethren in the State.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, it is remarkable that this blessing cannot be copied by other communities without being tied in.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, the overhead would be less here in Harrisburg because they already have their office in the Secretary of State's office and have employes; and all they would have to do would be to take on additional clerks, and the communities that come in would have to bear that expense. It is all now organized in the Secretary of State's office.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I am speaking about outside communities.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, they would practically join the State pension scheme. It would be all coalesced, merged in the State Pension scheme; and the office would remain the same, the administration would be the same as now, as I understand it.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, it is not clear to me.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, ought to study the systems up here.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I study many of the systems around here, and up to date I have not caught up yet. I would like to inquire of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, whether he is one hundred per cent. perfect on the code.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, joking aside, this has been a great blessing to the six thousand employes. We would welcome a hearing on this bill.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I would like to inquire whether this bill would not permit any municipality not now having a pension system to come in and establish a pension system for employes?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, it would, yes.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 245, File Folio 391, be recommitted to the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities for the purpose of a hearing.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father we thank Thee this morning for the glorious liberty which we enjoy, and we beseech Thee that Thou wouldst deliver us all from the slavery of hatred and fear and ignorance. May the motto which is inscribed on the wall of this House reveal to us that which is true, that "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." Help us to seek to know the truth so that our hatred and ignorance and fear may be taken away, and may we realize that underlying all of the wars and all of the disputes of races and men, there is ignorance; that when we know each other better our hatred is taken away. We thank Thee for our fellowship as men and as women, and that as we know each other better we realize that the thing which has separated and divided men have no real foundation. Be with us this day and bless us in all that we do, going with all of us to our homes. Bless our loved ones, those in whose lives we are interested. We ask in Thy name. Amen.

RESOLUTION RELATING TO PRINTING

Mr. RICHARDSON offered a resolution which was twice read as follows:

Whereas, His Excellency, John S. Fisher, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has enunciated a program of economy for the present administration of government, and,

Whereas, The members of the House of Representatives, Session of 1927 believe that such a program should be met with economies wherever possible in the conduct of the business of the House of Representatives,

Be It Hereby Resolved, That the concensus of opinion of the members of the House of Representatives be that they confine themselves to the use of printed stationary only, and that no member shall request engraved or embossed stationary from the officers charged with the furnishing of such official stationary, and,

Be It Further Resolved, That the provisions of this resolution shall not apply to the officers of the House of Representatives.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. RICHARDSON. Mr. Speaker, relative to offering this resolution I would like to have it understood that it is not entirely original with myself. Some time ago the Governor requested the various department heads of this Commonwealth to confine themselves to the use of printed stationery. The printing committee of this House believes that the members should go along with such a program of economy. Heretofore I understand it has been possible for members to secure engraved stationery. Those of you who now something of printing costs will know that engraved stationery is an expensive business, and that by having the departmental heads and the members of the House and the other branches of this administration use the printed stationery, it will be possible to effect a saving of between thirty and fifty thousand dollars to the State, certainly an amount which should be saved, if possible. On the other hand, I understand that the stationery printed previously has been of a rather poor quality and I want to say to you that Mr. Dight, superintendent of Publications, has prepared a letterhead which I believe you will find very well adapted for your use. If the stationery printed is not of a better grade than it has been before, then the printing committee feels that it should be reprinted and another resolution adopted. You have the word of Mr. Dight, Superintendent of the Bureau of Publication, that you will have no fault to find with the stationery if this resolution goes through, and I would ask for its adoption.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that under the rules of the House this resolution must lie over for printing.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the point of order is well taken and the resolution will lie over for printing.

Mr. HAINES. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House there is an emergency confronting the agricultural interests of the Commonwealth in the form of a plant pest known as the European Corn Borer. Our present law is inadequate to conform to the Federal Act. Pennsylvania's share to conform with the ten million dollar appropriation which has just passed the House and Senate depends upon a change in our pest control law and the authorities at Washington and the executives here would appreciate an immediate action by the House and Senate in amending our present pest control act to conform with the Federal requirement. Therefore, they desire to have it pass the Senate on first reading today. I would ask the indulgence of this House at this time to call up this bill which is on the third reading calendar. I would ask the unanimous consent to call up out of order House Bill No. 1147, file folio 1327, on page 9 of the calendar, bills on third reading.

The SPEAKER. Is there any objection to calling up this bill out of order. The Chair hears none.

EXPOSITIONS ON REPEALORS.

1881, June 10, P. L. 104, No. 112. (CITIES.)

The act provides for the assessment of damages and benefits caused by the altering or changing of the channels of water courses in cities of the fifth class. While the act has never been specifically repealed or its constitutionality passed upon by the court, it is clearly unconstitutional under the ruling in the case of "Ayar's Appeal," 122 Pa. 266, the effect of which is to prohibit the division of cities into more than three classes.

1881, June 2, P. L. 45, No. 53. (TAXATION.)

The act makes taxes assessed upon real estate a first lien, and provides for the collection of such taxes and a remedy for false returns. The act excepts from its provisions, cities of the first, second and fourth classes, and was declared unconstitutional in "Van Loon v. Eagle," 171 Pa. 157 on the ground of being improper classification.

1881, June 8, P. L. 85, No. 92. (CRIMES.)

This act makes it a crime to deface walls and fences or other property by posting or printing advertisements. It is supplied by the Act of March 10, 1903, P. L. 20 as amended by the Act of June 26, 1913, P. L. 560.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 761, entitled:

An Act to validate certain borough warrants authorized and issued for valid municipal indebtedness and countersigned by borough controllers where no appropriation or no sufficient appropriation of money was made for the payment of such borough warrants prior to the issuance thereof and providing for the appropriation of money to pay such borough warrants

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia to explain the purpose of this bill. The title is so long it is difficult to understand.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the object of the bill before the House is to take care of a situation which was overlooked by the draftsmen of the Orphans' Court Fiduciary Code and the Interstate Code. Where a gift is given to some one for life and that person disappears and they cannot be found for over seven years, the remainderman has no remedy; in other words if John Jones gives property to Jim Smith for his life and Jim Smith disappears and cannot be found for over seven years the remainderman Jennie Smith cannot ask for relief. This bill is intended to give such remainderman relief. Today the law gives the heirs at law relief but not the devisees that are remaindermen. It is approved by the draftsman, Judge Gest.

Mr. WILLIAMS. The explanation is very satisfactory and I think it is a very meritorious measure.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 498, (House Bill No. 75), entitled:

An Act conferring upon cities of the second class power to authorize the construction maintenance and use of overhead passageways across and of underground passageways beneath public highways by the owners or lessees of the abutting properties and ratifying and approving existing ordinances authorizing such underground and overhead passageways in said cities

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill passed finally?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I have been asked by several members to explain this bill. It refers principally to the City of Pittsburgh. Naturally, under the present classification of cities, it will also afford the same authorization to Scranton.

The purpose of the Act is to provide the way and means to the City of Pittsburgh for building a subway and connections thereto—possibly an elevated system to connect with the subway, similar to that which is in Philadelphia today.

In our downtown districts we have the most congested district of possibly any city of like size in the country. We have got to do something, and the something has to be done by means of subways and elevated; and our Planning Commission has asked us to present this bill urge its passage so that when we get into the position where we can use the six millions of dollars we already have for this purpose, and can put twenty millions more to it, we can go ahead and do the work, and thus relieve the highways of the street cars by first putting them underground, then bringing them out and getting them overhead and taking them transversely into the communities they will serve. Otherwise they will always be on the surface and we will always be congested.

We are seeking relief, and the Planning Commission think this is the proper means of obtaining the relief sought—by seeking legislation authorizing this.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, would this affect private stores putting overhead and underground passageways?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, not any more than the overhead bridges connecting up several buildings, such as the Frick Annex and the Boggs & Buhl Buildings and the buildings of Horne & Company. Likewise the subways that have been made—having been authorized by ordinance of Council—for electric power to be conveyed from the Farmers Bank under Fifth Avenue to Eisner & Phillips' Building and the First National Bank; also the conduit put in by the Columbia Bank Building at Wood Street and running under Third Avenue to Market Street, under Market to Fourth Avenue and under Fourth Avenue back to Wood Street.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, it would not, then, prevent the building of bridges from one building to another across the street?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, that is under authority of Council; but Council would not allow any that would interfere with the elevated.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, that is in the Act?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I would not want to say that specifically, but it would not establish the precedent of erecting buildings above the street level.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, isn't there much harm coming from a bridge being built from one building to another across a main street?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, there is, but not much danger of obstructing of the highway by a bridge overhead. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, was one of the County Commissioners at the time they gave permission to build a subway from the City and County Building to the Court House. He is familiar with that subject, no doubt better than I am. And that subway is to be put underneath the surface,—the subway to be built in place of the street railway.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I still say, isn't there danger of great harm coming from the building of a bridge from one building to another overground?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, does the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, mean overhead?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, overhead—where it is not specified in the bill as to the height of it.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, that is entirely within the jurisdiction of the municipality. It is not likely they would allow one that would be too low. As an illustration, the railroads have set a seventeen-foot clearance on their railroad coming into the city,—a seventeen-foot clearing on Penn Avenue, a seventeen-foot clearing on the road leading down to the freight station. Now, that is the nearest we got, possibly, to interfering with or interrupting the highways by bridges over the streets.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, what I fear is that under this bill they could erect a bridge across from the second or third floors and thereby hamper, perhaps, high trucks or shut out the light of adjoining buildings.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, all those things are possible, but under our system of government with the Planning Commission and the Council, I have no fear of it whatever. I would say this: I was in Council when they passed the legislation giving the Pennsylvania Railroad the right-of-way on Fifth Avenue so that they could connect up with the right-of-way they had along the wharf; and I was subject to a great deal of criticism. And I allowed them to put an upright on the curb line at Penn Avenue and Eleventh Street; but if you go back you will remember there is no upright on the pavement; and you will also remember the fact that we did not figure in those days, 1901, that they were going to interrupt traffic. But it did the greatest thing ever done in Pittsburgh, making the surface line and giving them the elevated road down Duquesne way. But I don't think you need fear anything in the future from action of that kind.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, whether as a matter of courtesy he will allow this bill to go over in its order, so we can secure some further information.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, having the honor to represent a second-class city, I can see no harm in this bill. It only authorizes the Councils of cities of the second-class to enact ordinances granting those things. We are not granting anything here—any more than authorizing the Councils of second-class cities to pass ordinances granting those requests. I can see no reason for this bill going over in its order whatever.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I will ask the Senator from Scranton, Mr. Davis, to allow my colleagues from Allegheny County to make their further investigation, so they can communicate to this Senate anything different from what I have stated, anything that would interfere with our future, or anything that would obstruct; or anything the Planning Commission is not doing for the welfare of our community, —I would be glad to learn of it. Because I know they are doing everything, and doing it for nothing, to give us a greater city, a better city for our people.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, there is no attack on our Planning Commission at all, or our Zoning Commission, in my remarks, I am only asking for more information.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I would answer the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, that if he would only read the bill it would explain itself. It is home rule. It leaves it up to Council.

BILL POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of the bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 531, (House Bill No. 636), entitled:

An Act authorizing council of cities of the second class to fix the salary of the mayor of said cities and providing the maximum amount thereof

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, in the name of economy, this bill applies to second class cities. We are on the road to be divorced from Pittsburgh. However, the Governor has not yet signed the second class A bill. This bill calls for salary of $15,000 for the Mayor and $10,000 for the councilmen. I am perfectly satisfied that the City of Scranton cannot afford those salaries. Therefore, I hope that the members from Pittsburgh will allow me to put this bill over in order for the present.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I try the best I can to satisfy my friend, the Senator from Scranton, which is classified as a second class city at the present time. This bill does not fix the salary.

Mr. President, it is a little bit of home rule. It is in a sense unfortunate that the City of Scranton will be detached from Pittsburgh. The company has been very congenial and pleasant up to the present time and if His Excellency, the Governor, will not make a second class city A and allow Scranton to enter that class the marriage will still continue and there will be no divorce. But in trying out the policy of the charters of the two cities so that there will be no confusion, the salaries of the Mayor, the salaries of the magistrates and members are made maximum and minimum, both in numbers and salaries.

Our Mayor, a former member of this body, the Honorable Charles H. Kline, made all the provisions necessary, at great expense, for the appearance of Queen Marie from Rumania. He found the expenditures of his office and its participation in functions of that kind and others of a local character, did not leave any salary. The councilmen and all men who are in politics are subject to and borne down upon by local charitable functions and they do not like to be relieved of all the money that they earn and they should have some additional salary to carry them over, so that they can live in a manner in keeping with the position that they occupy.

We are not interfering with Scranton further than we ever have. Scranton is in the same position if this bill passes as it was prior to this act. We do not know whether councilmen is going to increase their salaries or not. That is up to them. As an illustration, when the new council abolished the two branches, select and common, having a certain representation in accordance with the population, and passed the charter under the constitutional provisions in 1911, the legislature saw fit to give the council leeway to raise from twenty-five hundred per annum to sirty-five hundred per annum, and I have to say for the benefit of council that at their first meeting they immediately voted themselves the maximum sixty-five hundred dollars.

Mr. President, these are little matters of local pride and they are consistent with the policy that we have all been trying to carry out, trying at least to bridge the chasm since the United States Government has taken away state rights. We are also trying to vote ourselves in the position for our home rule right. I know that the Senator knows it does not interfere with his city and I am satisfied that the Governor, recognizing the fact that to separate second class city and organize second class city A would be the most wholesome thing that the Senator might ask for, because he introduced the bill, I would like to join with him and think the Senators who voted for this bill will join with him and try to put him where he belongs and where he wants to reside, to rule ourselves and decide whether we will increase these salaries or whether we will leave them alone, because it is entirely with the council of the City of Pittsburgh and I feel, as a member of the Senate, that I think we are entitled to it, and I say this to you, and I say it to you in all candor, that no man can fill a position in the City of Pittsburgh and save a nickel even at fifteen thousand dollars a year.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I want to say for the benefit of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, that the reason I want to postpone the bill is, I would like to have an opportunity of voting for the bill with a clear conscience. I do not want to break any record. I have never voted against increase of salaries in all my time in this legislative hall. I would like to give the Governor a chance to sign this wonderful bill. I am sure he will do it in 24 hours and if so I will be in a position of voting for this bill with a clear conscience. That is my reason for wishing it postponed for the present.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I also am in favor of postponing the bill in order that it may be whipped into shape so that I can vote for it with a clear conscience. Since the County Commissioners of Allegheny County are now to receive the salary of $15,000, it appears to me that $15,000 is entirely inadequate for the Mayor and the bill ought to be whipped into such shape that it is commensurate with the dignity of the office and the duties devolving upon him in entertaining such distinguished persons as Queen Marie. Therefore, I think the salary ought to be adequate and I think it ought to be postponed.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. QUIGLEY. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 534, (House Bill No. 809) on third reading, entitled:

An Act to enable cities incorporated towns boroughs and townships of the first class to govern and regulate by ordinance the construction alteration repairs occupation maintenance sanitation lighting ventilation water supply toilet facilities drainage use and inspection of all buildings used for human habitation and land appurtenant thereto and providing for the enforcement of such ordinances be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Affairs.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question.

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I hope this motion will not prevail. This bill has been recommitted once or twice. The bill does not make any demand upon the boroughs or councils or township commissioners. It has passed the House and there is nothing wrong with this bill. I hope it will not be recommitted.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion.

It was agreed to.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend section 2, page 3, line 2 by striking out "faculties" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "facilities".

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

PRAYER.

Almighty God, Thou art the ruler of all men and of all nations; all power and all authority are with Thee. The issues of life and of death are in Thy hands. Help us as men and as women to realize that everything that goes to make up our life, all of our joys and all of our sorrows, go to make up Thy plan for each one of us. Be tonight in the homes into which the dark shadows of death have been cast since last we met here; be especially in the homes of the members of this House tonight where there is sorrow. May all of the peace and the comfort of the eternal God abide with those who sorrow. Be with this House tonight as it commences the duties of this week. Guide the Speaker; guide every member; help us all to do those things which are right and which are just and which we believe to be right and just regardless of all consequences. May we realize that when we do right the consequences are with Thee and not with us. We ask these blessings in Thy name. Amen.

With the information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 91, file folio 647, entitled:

An Act to amend section twelve of an act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws four hundred and eighty-three) entitled "An act relating to practice in the courts of common pleas in actions of assumpsit and trespass except actions for libel and slander prescribing the pleadings and procedure to be observed therein and giving the courts power to enforce its provisions," as amended by removing the exemption allowed municipalities from filing affidavits of defense.

was defeated on final passage on Tuesday, March 2, 1927, be reconsidered.

Mr. METZINGER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I want to get this matter straight on the record. There is no one responsible for the catastrophe of last Wednesday except one man, and he is here in this House, the member from McKean, Tom Wilson. There isn't anybody else at all who is responsible and I do not want this House to think that I feel that any injusice has been done me. This bill came up in the Judiciary General Committee, which is a very busy committee, and Mr. McClure, the Chairman of the Committee, was kind enough to either call me to his desk or I went there on another matter, and he told me that he was opposed to the bill. He gave me a letter from one of the city solicitors and said, "I think this represents the opinion of those who are opposed to the bill." Notwithstanding the fact he was opposed to the bill, he was kind enough to bring it up in the Judiciary General Committee, where they are extremely busy, and after consideration sent it out on the floor of this House. It went back again after two readings and he again said, that he was opposed to the bill although friendly to me. I want to get that on this record. I do not want anybody in this House to feel that I am entitled to any sympathy or that I have been mistreated, because I have not been. I have been extremely well treated by the members of this House, and I appreciate it. But I would like to say now what I want in this bill. This bill should be the law of Pennsylvania. It requires municipal corporations to file affidavit of defense the same as anybody else does. Under the present law they are relieved from doing that by an act of assembly in Pennsylvania. I do not care anything about whether the municipal corporations that I sue file an affidavit of defense or not, because I can get a stipulation at any time from any member of our bar. I thought however that it should be the law of Pennsylvania, and I foolishly tried an experiment. I have confidence enough in the ladies and gentlemen of the House to think that if the matter were fairly presented to them, even by as humble a member as I am, and in spite of the lobby of the municipal corporations and the lobby of lawyers, if I could get the matter straight before the House in a manner that they would understand, in spite of all lobbies, if they thought that the bill was all right, they would vote for it. That is all I wanted in the bill. I should have been here to attend to it; no one else was responsible, and the fault is all my own. I do not want anyone to think that I feel hurt because of the way the House has used me, because if any man wants to help a man who is absent, he does not know what to do and he does not know what the opposition is until the "Noes" begin to come and then it is too late to do anything. I do not want anyone in this House to think that I need sympathy, because I should be able to take care of myself.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in offering this motion for a re-consideration of the vote, I would like you all to vote "aye", for it is my thought to follow that, with the sponsor's permission, with a motion to place the bill on the postponed calendar, so that it can be given further consideration, and then the bill can be debated on the floor. Unfortunately the gentleman from McKean was not in a position to debate the bill when it came up for final passage, and if you vote "aye" you will give an opportunity for a fair consideration of the bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO DROP BILL FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I do want not any bill nor do I want any legislation about which the House has any question. I do not need any legislation of that kind, and I can get along perfectly well. I do not want any member to feel that he should vote for something because I want it. I do not wish to embarrass the people in the House who are friendly to me, and I, therefore, move that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was not agreed to.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, did I understand the Chair to rule that the motion was lost.

The SPEAKER. The Chair so ruled.

MOTION TO POSTPONE BILL.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RESOLUTION RELATING TO PRINTING.

Mr. EDERER offered a resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 7, 1927.

Whereas, There have been complaints justly made in the present Session about the delay in the printing of matter for the House of Representatives, thereby causing annoyance and delay in the proper functioning of that body,—and

Whereas, The Members of the Printing Committee have as a Committee been investigating the printing plants to ascertain if possible some means of alleviating the condition,—and

Whereas, The contracts for State Printing require that no private work may be done by the printer to the Commonwealth,—and

Whereas, An examination of the plant of J. L. L. Kuhn, in Harrisburg, discloses the fact that private printing is being done in said plant, and that the State Printing is thereby being delayed, and that the full capacity of the plant is not being employed to meet the present demands.

Therefore, Be it Resolved, that, the Director of Publication be notified of these circumstances and be directed to order said J. L. L. Kuhn, Printer to the Commonwealth to discontinue all private printing and devote the entire capacity of his plant to the prompt and efficient completion of the Public Printing, as provided in the contract with said J. L. L. Kuhn, Printer to the Commonwealth, as one means of correcting the present delay,—and

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Director of Publications.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that under the rules of the House, this resolution should lie over for printing.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the point of order is well taken, and the resolution will lie over for printing.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING SUITABLE EMBLEMS FOR THE MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE.

Mr. EMHARDT offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over for printing under the rules:

In the House of Representatives, March 7th, 1927.

Whereas, it is considered by the Members desirable to have a suitable emblem to be prepared for the Members and Officers of the house; Therefore be it

Resolved, that the Speaker be authorized and requested to have made for each Member of the House of Representatives and its Officers an emblem which in his judgment would be suitable and proper, as soon as conveniently may be, upon the adoption of this resolution.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker every two years it has been my privilege to make the announcement of the biennial dinner of the legislative sons of Saint Patrick. It will be held this year at the Penn-Harris Hotel on Tuesday evening, March 15, at seven thirty o'clock. I have the tickets for the dinner here now, and my suggestion to the members of the House is that they secure them as soon as possible. Every two years the Chairman of the Committee has had great trouble in furnishing tickets to the people who come to him at the last minute, expecting him to have tickets for them, but the tickets are all gone. They are asking for them this year twenty-five at a time. I understand three hundred and fifty seats are all that the Penn-Harris Hotel can accommodate in the ball room. I want the members of the House and Senate to have the preference in securing tickets for this particular banquet which this year is going to exceed anything, and will be far better than anything we have ever had before. We have a very fine committee, I would like to say to you, we have some of the most influential Irish ambassadors on the committee this year that we have ever had, in the person of Samuel W. Salus, Max Leslie and Horace Schantz of the Senate. The committee on the part of the House, I don't know where you would ever go that you would get such a wonderful Irish patriot as Christ Miller, Joseph W. Schilling, Wilson Sarig and our very good friend from Philadelphia, Charlie Baldi. As I said before, we would like you to get these tickets as soon as possible. The banquet will take place tomorrow night a week, and I want to get rid of these tickets as soon as possible. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the record.

RESOLUTION No. 5.

Mr. RICHARDS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 5.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be read by the Clerk.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

Whereas His Excellency John S Fisher Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has enunciated a program of economy for the present administration of government and

Whereas The members of the House of Representatives Session of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven believe that such a program should be met with economies wherever possible in the conduct of the business of the House of Representatives

Be it hereby resolved That the concensus of opinion of the members of the House of Representatives be that they confine themselves to the use of printed stationery only and that no member shall request engraved or embossed stationery from the office charged with the furnishing of such official stationery and

Be it further resolved That the provisions of this resolution shall not apply to the officers of the House of Representatives

On the question,

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 426, entitled:

An Act relating to search warrants regulating their issuance execution and return prescribing the powers and duties of justices of the peace alderman and magistrates issuing them and of officers executing them inflicting penalties for unlawfully procuring unlawfully executing and unlawfully resisting the execution of a search warrant

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, would the sponsor of this bill be willing to give us a little information on it.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia,

Mr. Sowers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. I will be glad to answer any questions, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I wish to ask the gentleman, inasmuch as this affects search warrants, if one of my neighbors was to have some chickens stolen, and he should have another neighbor in the vicinity that was known to be crooked, and he saw feathers strung down the road, and he traced the trail till he got practically to the home of the man suspicioned and then he would get a search warrant, and by that time the chickens had been cremated or eaten, or something else happened to them, and he could not identify the chickens, would he be subject to one hundred dollars fine and one year's imprisonment for not having made good and delivered the chickens?

Mr. SOWERS. May I ask the gentleman to clarify his question. I don't understand it properly. I don't know what might happen if the wind blew the feathers away? What would happen if the wind blew the feathers away?

Mr. MOORE. Would he not be subject to a fine? This provides for a fine of one hundred dollars and imprisonment for one year if he does not substantiate his case for which he takes out a search warrant.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill before you is practically a letter perfect copy of an act of Congress. Pennsylvania has no search warrant law. Search Warrants until recently were almost unknown in Pennsylvania. The United States government way back in 1794 realizing what search warrants were, prepared a code on search warrants, and then Congress of the United States appointed a commission to revise the laws of the United States, and to revise the criminal code. They have now what is known as the search and seizure act. Section 10496-¼ of the United States Criminal Code. This search warrant law is an exact duplicate of the United States Government Law. Section one of the bill before you is exactly the same. Section two is the second clause of the United States law. Section three is different from the United States law, which leaves some discretion with the commissioner of the United States government as to whether or not he shall issue a search warrant. In order to have a search warrant law, and in order to have your approval, I put in the words, "He must," that is, the magistrate or the justice of the peace, who is the official corresponding with the commissioner of the United States government, that the justice of the peace "must". The law of the United States government is not so strong, and I deferred in my judgment to my dry friends so that they might have a search warrant and the justice of the peace must issue it. Now, section four is exactly the same as the United States law. Section five is the same as section 1046 of the United States law. Section seven is different from the United States law in that it changes ten days to five days. The United States law was written with the idea that when the commissioner gave to the marshal a search warrant, the marshal might have to go on a three or four days journey to serve it and then report back to the Commissioner. I think there is no place in Pennsylvania where a warrant cannot be delivered by a justice of the peace, the service and the return made in five days. The United States government made it ten days on account of the distance that the United States Marshal might have to travel. The reason for the stipulation for the return is this: When a justice of the peace or a magistrate issues a search warrant, and gives it to a crooked or corrupt officer, he simply uses it for days as a collection ticket and not for the enforcement of the law, and the idea in making it five days is to make the police officer, or the officer serving the warrant, to serve it promptly, and not walk around with it in his posket to use it as a weapon of extortion. Section eight is the same as the United States section, eight and nine. Section ten says, "must". In other words, we had no law in Pennsylvania which says to the officer who has a search warrant for service, when he comes into your house, and takes something out of your house, that he does not have to give you a receipt for it. This section says that what the officer takes he must give a receipt for. The United States law says he must sign, seal and deliver that receipt. Now, this bill reads the same—

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has answered the question.

Mr. SOWERS. Have I answered it satisfactorily?

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. No.

Mr. SOWERS. I must admit that I am confused in the feathers. You have got those feathers in my eyes.

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I am not an attorney, but I believe there are thirteen different acts of assembly in Pennsylvania providing for search warrants. This bill is ostensibly to interfere and to confuse and to hamper the present law enforcement on liquor. Is that not true, Mr. Sowers? Am I not correct?

Mr. SOWERS. Does the gentleman address his question to me?

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Is it not true that this bill really interferes with the enforcement of the liquor law?

Mr. SOWERS. No, this does not interfere with the enforcement of the liquor law. It is an aid to the proper, legal and honest enforcement of the law by depriving the enforcement agent of the opportunity of extorting graft.

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. I would simply say that there are thirteen different species or kinds of search warrants upon the statute books of Pennsylvania. We have at the present time a search law in which the magistrate is the sole judge, or has the decision as to whether the complainant furnishes information that is satisfactory to him before he issued the search warrant. If I understand this bill properly a man would have to go in before a justice of the peace, before he could get a search warrant, and produce the absolute and actual facts, that such a man had liquor in his premises, that he had been selling it, and he would have to prove facts enough to convict him in court before he could get a search warrant to enter upon the premises. The judge of our county ruled last fall that evidence was good for any court no matter how it was found, whether the search warrant was strictly in accordance with the ideas which the defendant might have. That was appealed there and the Supreme Court has sustained that decision. I can see no effect in this law whatever only to upset and to befoul and to delay our present law, which is upon the statute books, and it is purely and solely in the interests of the criminal classes that would hide under the law, and would hide to such an extent—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. GUERIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. GUERIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has arisen to interrogate the proposer of this bill, now he is making a speech on it.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman has risen to an interrogation, and then when the interrogation is over he had the right to make a speech as long as he confined himself to the purposes of this bill. The Chair rules that the point of order is not well taken, and the gentleman from Bradford, Mr. Moore, will proceed.

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I think I have stated about all that I have to say on it. I have no disposition to turn off any long tirade but I was calling the attention of the members of this House to the fact that this bill is not for the enforcement of our liquor laws, but it is to hinder and interfere and make it powerless for a man or woman to proceed to get a search warrant, because if they don't sustain it to the full extent they are then subject to a one hundred dollar fine and a year's imprisonment.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Bradford, Mr. Moore.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Bradford, Mr. Moore, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOWERS. I ask you to look at section fourteen of the proposed bill and point out anything in it that interferes with the proper enforcement of any law.

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Section fourteen?

Mr. SOWERS. Section fourteen.

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. I read the bill over hurriedly and I decided it was not in the interest of justice.

Mr. SOWERS. Let us read it slowly.

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. What section?

Mr. SOWERS. Section 14, It is only a couple words. Shall I read it to you?

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Yes, if you please.

Mr. SOWERS. "Section 14. Whoever shall knowingly and wilfully obstruct, resist or oppose any such officer or person in serving or attempting to serve or execute a search warrant, or shall assault beat or wound any such officer or person knowing him to be an officer or person so authorized, shall be guilty of misdemeanor." Is there anything there to obstruct the enforcement of the law?

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Let us read section 15.

Mr. SOWERS. All right.

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. "Any person who maliciously and without probable cause procures a search warrant to be issued and executed shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

Mr. SOWERS. May I interrogate the gentleman on section 15?

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. All right.

Mr. SOWERS. Would you like any person without just cause to search your house?

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. No, he can come and search my house without a search warrant any time, I have nothing there to be ashamed of.

Mr. SOWERS. Have you any chickens there?

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. No, I have not.

Mr. SOWERS. Let us look at section 15: "Any person who maliciously and without probable cause," without any information, just for malice procures a search warrant to be issued and served on your house, would you not want that stopped, would you not want to protect the citizens of Pennsylvania against such malice?

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Oh certainly.

Mr. SOWERS. Then that is all right. Let us look at the next one. Section two was all right. Then point out a third one that is wrong.

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. You know what the intent of this bill is?

Mr. SOWERS. The intent of this bill is to give Pennsylvanians the same protection that the United States Government gives to its citizens.

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. You know how difficult under the Federal Laws it is to get a search warrant, and how much easier it is under our Pennsylvania statutes to apprehend the bootlegger. I just called the attention of the members to it, and you can vote on it as you feel.

Mr. SOWERS. The gentleman withdraws his opposition and says: "vote as you please."

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

May the sunshine of Thy love shine into our hearts and awaken the divine possibilities of manhood, that we may fulfill the end for which we were created, that we may help to carry out the great plan and purpose of God concerning the Universal Brotherhood of Man.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 113, entitled:

An Act prohibiting the investment of funds of building and loan associations in snydicated or equal lien loans where the same are divided between or among building and loan associations individuals or corporations

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I move that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, before this bill is recommitted I would like to say a word.

This bill has been on the calendar three times. About three weeks ago I met Mr. Greenfield, who is opposed to this bill, and told him that Secretary Cameron's bill, which is in the House,—creating two classes of building and loan associations—is a better bill than mine, and I was willing to have mine set aside in favor of the Cameron bill.

That is all I am trying to do, to send this bill to the House, where the Cameron bill is also in Committee and have the two bills in the same Committee but I got a little suspicious of being put in the position of having this bill held up here and the Cameron bill being held up in the House; and I would feel more comfortable if the two bills were in the same committee. I think the only purpose of getting this bill through the Senate is to put it over in the House. I have no idea this bill will become a law.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceed to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 219, as follows:

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I hope the Senate will pardon me for speaking so often. With the courtesy of the sponsor of this bill, Senator Daix, I asked that it go over in its order,—anr last night he asked that it go over in its order,—because it is an amendment to the City Charter, which I had the honor to sponsor in 1909; and I wish to say a few words about my position on Senator Daix's bill.

Senator Daix's bill is one of the two bad bills that I described as originating in the Senate,—at least, I thought so at the time; but since the bill has been amended, making the number of city councilmen twenty-two, the spirit of amity and goodness has settled over us, and I am happy to say I can support the bill. So I want to say just a few words, and I will say them as rapidly as I can.

It is only fitting that I should say a word about the men who drew the City Charter, so I can pay a tribute to the late Mr. Rennerston, Mr. Thomas Raeburn White and Mr. Blumberg, who worked with the Committee of One Hundred to draw the charter which has given satisfaction, I think, to most people at least, for over eight years.

I would also like to say that for the passage of that City Charter in the General Assembly we were all very deeply indebted, and I want to make my acknowledgment here to the late Senator Boise Penrose.

At the meeting in Philadelphia the proponents and opponents of this amendment to the City Charter were agreed on one thing, and that was that a small charter is much more workable and more practical than a large charter. Mr. Weglein and the rest of us all agreed on that point; and Mr. Weglein was the first President, for four years, under the new City Charter, of the new Council of one hundred and sixty-seven. You all know, the larger the number of legislators in a body the fewer the people who pull the strings and manipulate the business.

The original idea was to have a city council of fifteen, elected at large; and so much opposition developed that the council was enlarged to twenty-one, and it was prorated among the wards of the city to give local representation.

This particular amendment to the City Charter is decidedly in favor of the First District. Our most attractive Senator comes from the First District, and I am happy I can vote for any bill which will promote the interests of the First District.

I will say, however, that in the district I represent, the Sixth District, and in the district Senator Daix represents, we have an increasing residential section of Philadelphia; and the last count on the Assessors' list showed the First District was going to drop out one councilman, cutting it down from three to two; but by taking the Federal census of 1920 they can hang on to their three councilmen. And it is perfectly agreeable to me and the Senator from the First District, who has spoken once or twice of buying a house from me in the Sixth District, or renting a house from me in the Sixth District; and I will be happy to have it, provided she will remain in my district and I will not become a resident of hers.

My friends say it is not fair to go back seven years to the Federal census,—that we ought to depend on the Assessors' list. My friends are mistaken, and I am the only one right on this matter. It is an old story but still the moral is the same. There was the Assessors' list in the Third Ward in February, and here is the same division in September of the same year. After the list was purged there were removed 257 names. In six months they removed 257 names from one division. If all the Assessors did their duty in this way, we could easily see that Council, instead of being twenty-two, would be about one hundred and twenty-two. But this bill of Senator Daix's limits the number to twenty-two.

Some of my friends also say that the census counts aliens, and that Moyamensing Prison is in the First District and they count the inmates of Moyamensing Prison. This man is there himself. I believe he can never get on the assessors' list, but he is counted in the Federal Census. However, that does not make any particular difference.

In the Sixth District we have an old township, of Roxborough, and it is situated along the Schuylkill River and the Wissahickon Creek, and is so isolated that everybody in City Hall forgets all about Roxborough. They had seven million dollars to be set aside for improvements in Roxborough, and the Sesqui-Centennial debts were so high that they took five million dollars from Roxborough to pay the Sesqui-Centennial debts, and left them two millions.

If we go on without Senator Daix's bill Roxborough was going to get four councilmen—we were going to have four councilmen in our District; they would be in City Hall, and poor old Roxborough would be getting something they have been standing by waiting for for a great many years, I assure you.

If I had my way I would like, of course, to put in the amendment which I offered the Senator, that the number should remain always at twenty-two; but the Senator didn't like the amendment, and so, in the spirit of Locarno and general peace I put the amendment in the scrap basket.

In conclusion, an idle gossip said to me that Senator Daix takes an interest in this bill because he wanted to be the next mayor of Philadelphia, or, at least, wanted one of his good friends to be mayor; but I told the idle gossip that there was nothing to it, that Senator Daix was too astute a politician to want to be the next mayor of Philadelphia himself or to wish that job on any of his friends.

The present mayor has had the time of his life. He has been entertained with kings, queens and the President of the United States, and has entertained governors, has laid cornerstones with the flags flying and bands playing. But the next mayor instead of laying any cornerstones will probably be dodging a brick, and if the band plays it will probably be playing a funeral march. The next Mayor of Philadelphia will have to walk. There will be no limousine. I think he will sit on a stool in Horn & Hardart's to get his lunch. There will be nothing doing. That fine fleet of automobiles which we have seen going down the Gladway is now, or will be shortly, in hock. Instead of entertaining the Queen of Roumania or the President of the United States the only guest the Mayor will entertain will be the sheriff. City Hall will be mortaged. I think Mr. Mitten may have the first mortgage, and Mr. Greenfield may have the second mortgage.

No, there will be a strict economy. There will be no traffic policemen, because in the state of our streets there will be no traffic. Parking will be indefinite,—you park your car permanently in the last hole into which you fall.

What we need for 1928 is a certified public accountant, a man absolutely without vision. Any man who is proposed for Mayor who has any vision will be strapped on one of the courtyard cannon and blown to pieces, I assure.

Mr. President, there is nothing in that story about Senator Daix and his friend at all. When it comes to City Council, one reason that reconciles me to voting for the bill as amended is that it makes no difference who the City Councilmen are for the next four years,—there will be no money to spend. I am willing to have them all come from the First District. In fact, why not constitute Mr. Cox, who is the Chairman of the Finance Committee, as the City Council,—as a Council of One, Mr. Cox?

We will have a few firemen and police; and if the Republican Organization asks my advice,—which is not very likely—I would say, "Gentlemen, you have been very much at odds with Controller Hadley, but if you now want to get even with Mr. Hadley I would now nominate and elect him as the next Mayor of Philadelphia and give him desk room in the new Annex, and let him figure for the next four years how to pay the bills."

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,
